From the Secretary

If you have moved or have a new email address, please email the new information to the secretary. It is important that I know so we can update the Grand Lodge Database and to save your lodge postage.

Also, I am going in for heart surgery on Tuesday October 18th. The doctors are going to perform a cardio ablation. I will be in the hospital overnight and come home on Wednesday. I will be taking it easy through the weekend and return to work on Monday. Should you attempt to contact me and there is a delay, I will return the message or email as soon as I can. Fraternally, RWB Barry Jenkins

Congratulations to the Newly Installed Officers of Table Rock Lodge #680 for 2016-2017

From the East:

R.W.B. John Pace

Brethren,

Grand Lodge session is over. I was unable to attend due to a prior commitment. Next meeting is set for October 11th...no meal. Will be needing help on Thursday, October 13th...the Order of the Eastern Star will be meeting in the building and we will be preparing and serving both breakfast and dinner for the Grand Officers, Deputies and their escorts. Looking forward to a great year and with your help we can accomplish that.

Take a little time out of your schedule and attend the Lodge. If you are interested in learning about opening and closing the Lodge or learning your proficiency's we have practice on Tuesday evening starting at 6:00 pm, except the evenings when our stated communications are held.

The Ritual Committee met in July and a new SUB II Part IV card was established. It consists of the 3 Charges following the Degrees. I want to congratulate WB Lloyd E. "Tony" Root and WB Frederic Ybarra on receiving the new SUB card after the last stated communication. I received mine in August in Branson when the Grand Lecturer, RWB David Wheelock was holding a School of Instruction. Congratulations, Brethren.

See ya at the Lodge...

RWB John
