From the Secretary

Brethren, I hope this newsletter finds you healthy, and doing well.

The lodge has opened back up and we had our two stated meetings in May. We are conducting meetings in a manner which complies with all laws, regulations, requirements and guidelines of the State of Missouri and any city, county, or other political subdivision in which the lodge hall is located.

We also must abide by the recommendations of the U.S. C.D.C. with respect to face coverings, hand sanitation and disease mitigation protocols.

The Grand Master ordered in this EDICT, that we only open on the First Degree of Freemasonry, so to comply with all social distancing guidelines. Also, there is to be no degree conferral at this time, until so ordered by the Grand Master.

At this time face masks are not "required" at lodge meetings. However, should a brother want to wear one, that is more than ok. Every brother needs to do what he feels that will protect himself, even if that means not coming to lodge.

The Worshipful Master has called for practices on the off Tuesday's of our meetings to begin at 6:00 P.M. If you can come, we would love to have you.

At the last stated meeting we voted on two men to become members of the lodge. However, we do not know right now, when we will be able to confer a first degree. I will keep you updated as information becomes available.

There are still 13 brethren who have not yet paid their dues for 2020. I have attempted to contact each, and every brother and I have mailed out the April dues notices, the next notice will be a suspension letter. Brethren, the lodge needs your support. Please send in your dues if you are in arrears.

Finally, it is my hope is that you stay healthy, and that this COVID-19 situation will soon be under control so we can return, to whatever the new normal will be.

Fraternally,
Barry Jenkins - Secretary
