From the Secretary

Brethren, I hope this newsletter finds you healthy, and doing well. There have been a few members that have had, and survived COVID-19 and I can tell you from experience that it was not fun. My case was mild, kind of like bronchitis, until I lost my sense of taste and smell and I realized what I had. I recovered and about a month later, it came back a lot worse the second time. The research I did, they call it COVID Syndrome. Enough of that.

On the dues front, we still have 14 brethren who have not paid their dues. If you have not paid your dues, you will receive the required delinquent notification in the mail. This cost's the lodge extra money in printing costs, and postage. For the Brethren who have not paid their dues, please send them in. We do not want to lose you as a member, and we hope you have not lost interest in being a Mason.

The Grand Master has rescinded his Edicts and we can now open the lodge in all three degrees and begin degree work, beginning March 1st, 2021. For degree work, there will be safety protocols in place so that we are as safe as we can be. We currently have three men who are waiting to receive the degrees, and I will send out communications when those are scheduled. There is also a lot of degree work in the district so there will be a lot of degrees going on soon.

There was talk about starting up the pancake breakfast again very soon. I think the cook team are working on safety protocols so that the customer can feel comfortable coming out to eat. More information coming soon.

We have had one Master Mason just complete his transfer into our lodge from Billings Lodge #379. Welcome Brother Jeff Akers to TRL.

In October we welcomed Brother Johnny Graves and John Graves, father, and son and in November we welcomed Brother Wayne Welch and W.B. Ronald Shuler all transferred from Billings Lodge #379. Welcome to all the new brethren to TRL. I hope I did not miss anyone.

Also, we have had a brother to reinstate his membership in the fraternity. Welcome Brother John Baur.

If I can help you with anything regarding your membership, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Fraternally,

Barry Jenkins - Secretary
