From the Secretary

Brethren, I hope this newsletter finds you healthy, and doing well.

As you know there has been no activity at the lodge in the past month due to the COVID-19 outbreak, so I really do not have a whole lot to report. However, things are beginning to open back up.

The Grand Master has issued an EDICT on April 24th, 2020 that after May 3rd, 2020 we can begin to have meetings with caveats and changes.

We can conduct meetings, in a manner which complies with all laws, regulations, requirements and guidelines of the State of Missouri and any city, county, or other political subdivision in which the lodge hall is located. We also must abide by the recommendations of the U.S. C.D.C. with respect to face coverings, hand sanitation and disease mitigation protocols. The Grand Master ordered in this EDICT, that we only open on the First Degree of Freemasonry, so to comply with all social distancing guidelines. Also, there is to be no degree conferral at this time, until so ordered by the Grand Master.

With this information, the Worshipful Master has called a practice for the officers on Tuesday Evening, May 5th, 2020 at 6:00 P.M., in anticipation of resuming stated meetings with the first one on Tuesday May 12th, 2020 at 7:00 P.M.

There are still 18 brethren who have not yet paid their dues for 2020. I have mailed out the April dues notices, the next notice will be a suspension letter. Brethren, the lodge needs your support. Please send in your dues, if you are in arrears.

Finally, it is my hope is that you stay healthy, and that this COVID-19 situation will soon be under control so we can return, to whatever the new normal will be.

Fraternally,
Barry Jenkins - Secretary
